A Merry Christmas, one and all, And a happy good New Year; Long live the pleasures of the past, Let its sorrows disappear.

We warmly thank our numerous friends. In the neighboring state and here, For the many favors we've received Through the waning good old year.

We trust old friends may still remain, While many new draw near; And witness in our humbre way, How we'll blense them through next year.

We'll greet their aid with generous pride, And a hearry right good cheer. And welcome the public, one and all, To our services through the year.

So come along—be not dismayed, Our terms are not severe; A moderate charge and better work, Our motto in th' ensuing year.

We would not harm th' opposing trade, Nor give it cause to fear; But gladly move in peace with all Throughout the next New Year.

Now, one word more before we part: We'll shoe your horse or mend your cart,

ACCIDENT TO THE LILLOOUT .- This fine pitionally. In addition to the other mishaps which befel her, we learn that on Sunday, while crossing the Gulf, bound to Victoria, who encountered rough weather, and her machinery became deranged and useless. Her wheel was also damaged and rendered unser viceable, and the steamer lay in a very precarious position, drilting towards shore. Efforts were made to moor the steamer before she struck, but the warp parted and she swing on the rocks in Plumper Pass, where she was found by the Enterprise on Tuesday. Capt. Mouat supplied Capt. Wallace, who was in charge of the Lilloet, with tackle tenable him to get her off, and upon the return of the Enterprise yesterday she was found by the roff, and upon the return of the Enterprise yesterday she was found by the roff, and upon the return of the Enterprise yesterday she was found by the roff, and upon the return of the Enterprise yesterday she was found by the roff, and upon the return of the Enterprise yesterday she was found by the roff, and upon the return of the Enterprise yesterday she was found by the roff, and upon the return of the Enterprise yesterday she was found by the pisson. The poor little child, whose existence was so nearly terminated by the range of time and circumstance; for thus only will the changes were the most acute of the two. It is to be hoped that this narrow escape for ma horrible sker in tow and bring her to this port, but deemed it more prudent, as the Lilloest had a little shade to show the same than the statement and the statement on summers leave nothing to be wished for. There has been a white frost for heast two nights, hewever, and the weather wise begin to shake their heads, and prognost inches a return to the damp prognost interest and in the weather wise begin to shake their heads, and prognost prove from any subject at the outset; and f stermer has commenced her career unpro-pitiously. In addition to the other mishaps her in tow and bring her to this port, but deemed it more prudent, as the Lillout had a deemed it more product, and and daylight would soon be fading, to leave her where she was and to fetch her to.day. The Lilloet we regret to hear, has received considerable damage. Her passengers were transferred to the Euterstie.

Housebreaking .- A daring and nearly successful attempt at robbery was committed a night or two ago at the house of Mr. Sayward, Collinson street. One of the family happened to awake during the night and discovered two men in the house, who, however, hastily decamped on the alarm being given. The rascals had effected an entrance by turning the door key from the outside by Junior to Philip Davies. sneads of pincers. Houskeepers should take warning from this and bolt as well as mittee will sit again to day at 11 a. m. lock their doors at night.

The bed of the canon being worked out and offa rapid grade, can be made the receptacle for all the tailings, so that they will not injure the claims below. Such is the demand for a bed rock flume above town that this fall a company made application to the Gold Commissioner for leave to lay 1600 feet of flume, to end in their own claim, and to be finished by the 1st of July next. On his being satisfied that the parties through whose claims it would pass were agreeable to it, he did all that he could to smooth difficulties and to forward

Frazer River Frozen Up.—We learn from passengers by the Enterprise that Frazer River was, at latest accounts, one solid sheet of ice from Langley up which by this time has, in all probability, extended to the mouth of the river and rendered it unmarigable. The Enterprise on her way to Wictoria passed through a good deal of float-under sing ice in the river. Capt. Irving, of the Reliance, is of opinion that the steamers will meet be a ble to resume their regular trips up the Frazer for the next month or six weeks. London Standard, will tend to throw some light upon the matter:

Sig.—Having just read the "sensation" Sin,—Having just read the "sensation" leaders in your evening edition of to-day, and in the Evening Star of yesterday, under the above heading, Lam compelled to break science by declaring, as the solicitor for the respondent, that I believe the whole of the statements in the petition to be untrue, as my client selemnly declares them to be. As to the noble co-respondent, he is in highly respectable hands, who are only able to take manager, has been tendered a benefit to take rince on Saurday night. The public have now an opportunity of manifesting their desire to appreciate Mr. Ward's exertions to place before them historion talent of the highest order, and, as it has been solely owing to the apathy shewn by the community that Mr. Ward's visit has been financially an unsuccessful one, we trust they will, on this occasion, make amends by giving him a beam processed and the properties of the properties o canvassed on the faith of the mere finme could be set in below the Marysville claim, running up creek till it struck bedrock, which would enable the claims below the canon, containing some of the richest deposits in the world, to be thoroughly worked out at a fraction of their present expense. Of the inclination of their present expense. Of the inclination of those claim-owners to go through with the undertaking I have little personal knowledge, so that I will confine myself to that I de know. Above the cannot for a distance of about two miles, the creek claims are comparatively worked out, under the existing system. Not by any means that all the gold is taken out, nor more than a small fraction of it. There were several claims at work last season, which in their results would compare very favorably with results would compare very favorably with seem to assume guilt on his part. Then you say "a respectable firm of solicitors vouch that the pending suit in the Divorce Court will, under no circumstances be compromised." Now, first, who are the respectable firm of solicitors? Are you aware, sir, that the "firm," otherwise the attorney to the petitioner, is the Mr. Wells who daily advertises relief. "To the Embarrassed," by means of the Court, in connection with a Mr. Weston, who, I believe, is an accountant at the same address? Mr. Wells advertises that he will obtain "protection for £5, payable by insmall fraction of it. There were several claims at work last season, which in their results would compare very favorably with the good claims below the canon. The most of these, owing to water, exes, the tapping of old diggings, and a variety of causes, will be incapable of being opened up in the usual way next spring. There are others that have just paid wages and expenses, and still more that have not. These, with a bel-rock flume, would all be worked to advantage. There would be no gold left unextracted, and ten times the amount taken out with the same quantity of labor as before. Of my own knowledge, directly and indirectly obtained, I think! I am safe in saying that all the miners above Richfield are anxious for a bed rock flume inmediately. I know little of the opinions of some of the claimowners opposite the town; but they cannot be otherwise than favorable to an undertaking that will benefit themselves as well as others. There are no difficulties of labor or engineering to contend with, and the expense will be trifling compared with that of similar undertakings below the canon. The bed rock is bare at the head of the canon, and there is a short length of figure laid, as an example for others to conobtain "protection for £5, payable by instalments," and "without publicity!" Also, that "divorce cases are confidentially con ducted." The present case seems "confi-dentially" known to the whole world, as Mr. Wells at once rushed into print to inform the Wells at once rushed into print to inform the public that no compromise had been made in the case. Now, I should be glad to know who set the report of a compromise afloat at all? Most assuredly not the respondent nor her solicitor? She emphatically denies all the allegations in the petition; and Mr. Wells, in his letter of denied might and outlet to have added that the desired might and outlet to have added that the contract of the contract of the case of th nial, might and ought to have added that no compromise or suggestion of a compromise, had come to him from the respondent or her had come to him from the respondent or her advisers; she will quietly await the peti-tioner's exposure of himself when the case comes into court. I have only to state in con-clusion, that the petitioner neither is a clergy-man, as stated, nor (to use your words) does he wear the robes of the Christian ministry; but if I am not misinformed, he is now in the service of the Weston alluded to in Mr. Wells' daily advertising programme.
